MARSHALL CHAPEL MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH DECEMBER 2016

“REACHING SINNERS, TEACHING SAINTS, AND MAKING DISCIPLES”

MARSHALL CHAPEL GOES PINK!!!

On October 2, 2016 Marshall Chapel Missionary Baptist Church went pink in support of Breast Cancer Awareness month. During the Sunday worship service all members wore pink attire to show their support. Small packets were given out after the service, which contained a Susan G. Komen for the cure pamphlet and small breast cancer pin. Sister Marina Williams called Cancer Survivors up to the front of Church and presented them with a gift for their strength, courage and most of all hope. Marshall Chapel has 20 Cancer Survivors, Praise God!

USHER'S 16TH ANNIVERSARY

On October 23, 2016 the Ushers of Marshall Chapel celebrated their 16th Anniversary. The theme for the celebration was "Trouble Don't Last Always". The Ushers marched in under the direction of their President Sister Mary Moore. The Master and Mistress of Ceremonies was Brother Vincent Claxton and Sister Zyiiah Claxton. The Rock of Ages Unity Choir blessed the church with four beautiful song selections. Sister Mary Moore thanked the church for their support for the Ushers who serve every Sunday. Bishop Waddell Butler was the guest speaker. During the ceremony, as the Usher Palm was read a candle was lit in memory of those that are no longer Doorkeepers in the House of God. There were a host of visiting Ushers in attendance to help celebrate the joyous occasion. There are currently 24 Ushers and 4 Junior Ushers.

HALLELUJAH FUN NIGHT

On October 23, 2016 Hallelujah Fun Night started off with the children and adults coming dressed in their best costumes. From 6:00pm to 8:00pm the children were able to partake in arts and crafts, face painting and play 13 different games. Small prizes were given out to the children who participated. Music played in the background as the children danced around. Delicious food was served to all in attendance. After a fun-filled evening that was enjoyed by all, everyone left with a delicious candy apple.

JACKSONVILLE – ONSLOW CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY

On November 19, 2016 Marshall Chapel participated in the 61st Annual Jacksonville-Onslow Christmas Holiday Parade in Jacksonville, North Carolina. Marshall Chapel takes part in the parade each year to further their relationship with the community. The float was headed by the best Pastor in Onslow County Pastor William C. Jones and other members from our Church. All members who participated this year had a good time and cannot wait until next year. Marshall Chapel's members are real proud and are not afraid to show pride for their church. We hope to see you on the float next year!

NEIGHBORS HELPING NEIGHBORS OUTREACH

In December 2016, Marshall Chapel participated in the "Neighbors Helping Neighbors" Outreach Program. This program helped those who were displaced due to Hurricane Matthew. With the efforts from the members of the Church we were able to help families and those in need by supplying food, clothes, shoes, pampers, and cleaning items. Your blessings were a blessing to someone else.

ROCK OF AGES UNITY CHOIR'S 27TH ANNIVERSARY

The Rock of Ages Unity Choir (ROC) celebrated their 27th Anniversary on December 4, 2016. The theme for this years' celebration was "My Solid Rock". The choir sung beautifully, they are under the direction of President Sister Brenda Peyton. The ROC choir wished every member a Merry Christmas and may your cup for the New Year be filled, pressed down shaken together and runneth over with blessings from God. They are 50 members strong and are still growing. They pray that God continues to show them the path that is laid out before them. They thanked Pastor Jones and the Marshall Chapel family for their ongoing support throughout the years. May God bless each and every one of you!

2016 -2017 BACK-PACK BUDDIES PROGRAM

Marshall Chapel is supporting the Morton Elementary School from October 2016 – June 2017 for the Backpack Buddies Program. If you would like to contribute please donate five dollars per person weekly for nine months. This will equal $45.00 for the school year. This amount feeds 25 students every week until the school year ends. The school chooses the students and they are anonymous to us. The monetary donations are collected by the Auxiliaries and Church members; and subsequently turned in to Sister Marina Williams. Sister Tikishia Smiley shops, prepares and delivers the bags each week to the school. It is a labor of love. Thank you for your Support of Marshall Chapel Missionary Baptist Church Backpack Buddies Program.

WOMEN OF PERSUASION

In December 2016, the Women of Persuasion from Marshall Chapel went out visiting those in the nursing homes. They brought their beautiful smiles along with spreading the Word of God. They sang songs, heard testimonies and uplifted spirits.

HAPPY 90TH BIRTHDAY MOTHER THELMA FELTON

Mother Thelma Felton was born in Sampson County on September 22, 1926. She grew up on a farm and that is where she developed a work ethic that would serve her well when she became employed at the Naval Hospital at Camp Lejeune. Mother Felton and her late husband Melvin Sr. gave birth to three children, the late Blondie Sims, Shirley Keith who lives in New York and Melvin Junior who resides in Warsaw North Carolina. Mother Felton celebrated her 90th birthday on September 22, 2016. Her two children gave her a surprise birthday celebration at James Sprunt Community College on September 24, 2016. Mother Felton was truly amazed to be greeted by members of Marshall Chapel, family members and guests from North Carolina, Virginia, and Maryland. The Mayor of Kenansville and the President of the college provided the welcome for the occasion. The Sheriff of Duplin County sent his well wishes in the form of a beautiful letter personally sent to be read at the program. Mother Felton was extremely excited and overjoyed at the love and joy she received from family, friends and invited guests.
